

WILLIAM K. CODY

Associate in Science in nursing, '82
Bachelor of Science in nursing, '86

A fellow of the American Academy of Nursing, Cody's primary practice area is community-based nursing and caring for underserved populations. He is the founder and chair of the board of Shelter Health Services Inc., in Charlotte, N.C., which provides health care for homeless women and children. He was dean of the Presbyterian School of Nursing at Queens University of Charlotte.

Cody has authored many articles on topics such as qualitative research, loss and grieving, and aspects of philosophy and theory in nursing. Cody co-edited the textbook, Philosophical and Theoretical Perspectives for Advanced Nursing Practice (4th ed.). He is a former contributing editor for Nursing Science Quarterly.

His awards include the James G. Cannon Award from the Mecklenburg Medical Alliance Endowment, the Bank of America Local Hero Award, the Hunter College Hall of Fame, the David Citron Award from the Regional HIV/AIDS Consortium, and the American Nurses Foundation Scholar Award. He received Excelsior College's Carrie B. Lenburg Award, given to graduate who demonstrates a commitment to nursing education as well as academic and professional accomplishments in the field of nursing.

*Director and Professor,
School of Nursing
College of Science and Health
DePaul University*

*Faculty, School of Nursing
Excelsior College*

- › PhD in Nursing, 1992
University of South Carolina-Columbia
- › MSN, 1989
City University of New York-Hunter College

- › BS in Communication, 1987
New York University