

KAREN S. COX

Associate in Science in nursing, '82

*Executive Vice President,
Co-Chief Operating Officer
Children's Mercy Hospitals & Clinics
Assistant Dean for Clinical Partnerships
University of Missouri-Kansas City
Kansas City, Missouri*

Cox is a fellow of the American Academy of Nursing and secretary of the AAN Board of Directors, affiliate of the Center for Health Policy, University of Missouri-Columbia, senior fellow of the Center for the Health Professions, University of California-San Francisco, and fellow of Sigma Theta Tau International Honor Society.

She has earned the following certifications: NEA-BC - Nurse Administrator Advanced Board Certified, American Nurses Credentialing Center (2003-2012); PNP - Pediatric Nurse Practitioner, American Nurses Credentialing Center (1994-2004); CPON - Certified Pediatric Oncology Nurse, Association of Pediatric Oncology Nurses (1993-1997); and OCN - Oncology Certified Nurse, Oncology Nursing Society (1991-1995).

Among her many board memberships, she serves as chair of the National Initiative for Children's Healthcare Quality; member of the Doctor of Nursing Practice Program Committee, Oakland University, School of Nursing; and co-chair of the American Nurses Credentialing Center.

A recipient of several professional and alumni awards, she is a member of the American College of Healthcare Executives, Academy of Health Advancing Research, Policy and Practice; American Academy of Nursing, and other associations.

› PhD in Nursing with a minor in business, 2002
University of Missouri-Kansas City

› MSN, 1993
University of Missouri-Kansas City

› BS in Nursing, 1983
University of Kansas