

LORRAINE B. SANDERS

Associate in Science in nursing, '82
Bachelor of Science in nursing, '85

*Associate Professor
Hunter-Bellevue School of Nursing,
The City University of New York*

An educator for more than 10 years, Sanders received the 2007 award for Outstanding Research Poster, "Nursing Research: Pregnancy after Diagnosis with HIV: Women's Voices," presented at the National Institute of Mental Health. She was the 2009 recipient of Excelsior's Carrie B. Lenburg Award.

A member of Sigma Theta Tau International, Honor Society of Nursing, she served as the vice president of the Alpha Omega Chapter. Her community activities include membership in the Medical Reserve Corps of Nassau County and service on a task force on perinatal mood disorders for the Nassau County Perinatal Service Network. She earned a Post Master's Certificate in Psych/Mental Health Nurse Practitioner from SUNY Stony Brook and a Midwifery Certificate from SUNY Downstate Medical Center.

Sanders has also coauthored a chapter in the book, Family Health Care Nursing: Theory, Practice, and Research, 4th Edition, and is the author of Reproductive Life Plans: Initiating the Dialogue with Childbearing Women and Their Partners.

› DnSc, 2005
Columbia University

› MS in Family Health Nurse Practitioner, 1989
SUNY Stony Brook